

Youth with Problematic Sexual Behaviors

A Two-Day Conference

Led by:

Benjamin A. Sigel, Ph.D.

University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences

Renee Roman, LMSW

START Children's Center Inc. in Troy, NY

Covered Topics:

- Problematic Sexual Behavior in Children:
 - Sexual development and sex play, definition and development of problematic sexual behaviors and co-occurring concerns
 - Impact, myths and misconceptions, and treatment outcomes
 - Effective clinical practice elements: rules about sexual behavior and boundaries, behavior parent training, abuse prevention, and sexual education
 - MDT challenges and response
- Adolescents with Illegal Sexual Behaviors:
 - Terminology, history, characteristics, and common misconceptions
 - Identification, referral, and ethical considerations
 - Assessment and treatment
 - Strategies to enhance MDT and community response

Registration Information

- No registration fee! Please fill out this registration form no later than 5:00pm on August 30, 2019.
- This event is intended for MDTs made up of MDT Coordinators/ Executive Directors and 4 additional members. Team members should represent a variety of disciplines, actively support the CAC/ MDT, and are interested in addressing the community's response to YPSB cases.
- A room block is available at the government rate for attendees. Use this link no later than August 29, 2019 to make your reservation. Please note: attendees are responsible for all travel and lodging costs.

Event Details:

Who:

Teams of 5 MDT Members

When:

September 19-20, 2019

Day 1: 8:30am-5:00pm

Day 2: 8:30am-3:30pm

Where:

Hilton Providence
21 Atwells Avenue
Providence, RI 02903

questions?

Sue Ascione, NRCAC
sue@nrcac.org

This training is supported by funds awarded through OJJDP grant #2016-CI-FX-K003 and CFDA #16.758.